THE New York Herald claims to have sent out a "trusty correspondent" to interview the Democratic leaders throughout the State of New York, and publishes several depends upon the success of the principles columns of what purports to be their reponses. John Ganson, Judge Comstock, Francis Kernan, Gen. John A. Green, William G. Fargo, A. P. Lanning and Ex-Gov. Seymour were among those said to have been interviewed. Their expressions, as given by the Herald, were in every instance strongly condemnatory of Tammany.

Cornwall, late of our county of Jackson, has fled from justice and is I will attend on the premises and ofter at public sale to the highest bidder about 900 acros of the finest land in Lincoln county, a large portion of it, perhaps, not surpassed in the State.

I will first offer for sale the tract on which the late James Bright, Sr., resided during his lifetime, containing about 450 acresl, ying adjacent to the town of Fayetteville, and a portion within the now running at large:

Now, therefore, I, D. W. C. SENTER, Governor as aforesaid, by virtue of the power in the time, containing about 456 acres!, ying adjacent to the town of Fayetteville, and a portion within the corporation of said town. Said tract is intersected by the Fayetteville and Tullahoma and Fayetteville and Shelbyville Turnpikes, is well supplied with excellent drinking and stock water, and on it is situated a good dwelling house, the residence of the late James Bright, Sr., with stables, barn, orchard, out-houses, and other improvements of a good stock and grain farm. A large portion of said tract is well set in blue grass—is well timbered and well watered. These advantages, in connection with the fact of their close proximity to the town of Fayetteville, (no part of said limds being more than two miles from the Courthouse,) make them the most desirable that can be offered in this county.

The portion of said tract lying within and adjacent to the town of Fayetteville will be divided into lots suitable for building purposes, and the remainder of said tract into two lots.

I will next offer for sale the Tract of Land situated in the bend of Elk river, about six miles from the town of Fayetteville, containing about 450 acres. Said tract is intersected by the Winchester and Alabama Railroad, and will de divided into two or more lots, as may be thought most advisable.

It lies well for cultivation, and is uppercased vested, do hereby offer a reward of One Hundi Dollars ($100) to any person or persons who may apprehend the same James Johnson and deliver him to the sheriff or jailor of our county of Jack-son, in order that justice in that behalf may be son, in order that justice in the had and executed.
